TOWIE RETURNS FOR A NEW SERIES WITH A FEW FAMILIAR FACES

Twitter users and fans of Gemma Collins can't have failed to have seen all the memes featuring her which have gone viral over the last few weeks. Well, now it's time for the return of the real GC as the foul-mouthed diva is back for the new series of The Only Way Is Essex.

Now in its 21st season, there are 18 more episodes over the next nine weeks, which means more power couples, fall outs, fashion statements and relationship woes. It begins with the now traditional season opener set in Marbella. And be prepared to see some old familiar faces because Mario Falcone, Lauren Pope and Mike Hassini have all returned to the gang.

Meanwhile, Essex's fieriest duo Pirate Pete and Mad Megan have reunited, but will it all be plain sailing for the on/off lovebirds? And with the girlband still on what seems like a permanent hiatus, can Megan and Amber T find a way forward with estranged pals Courtney and Chloe M?

Elsewhere, she's already locked lips with Kirk, Tom P, Mario and Dan Edgar, but which man does Popey have her sights set on this time round?

TASKMASTER

Greg Davies is back for a new series of one of Dave's most successful shows. His job is to set tasks for a variety of celebrities and then sit back to watch them become ultra competitive and make a mess of them. This year, the hopefuls are Aisling Bea, Bob Mortimer, Mark Watson, Nish Kumar and Sally Phillips. And as always, Greg will be joined by statistical beaver Alex Horne.

COMEDY PLAYHOUSE: STATIC

Toothy funnyman Rob Beckett switches from stand-up comedy and being a professional panellist to his own sitcom with Static. He plays a twentysomething who quits his job, leaves London and moves in with his folks – only it turns out they've just upped sticks, sold the family home and moved to a static caravan park! At first it seems like hell until he meets some of the park's quirkier characters.

■ Friday, 10.35pm, BBC1

UPSTART CROW

If you're a fan of funnyman David Mitchell then you'll be in your element this week. Not only does he currently star in new Channel 4 comedy Back with old partner Robert Webb, but he returns for a second series of Upstart Crow, too. David plays William Shakespeare who is struggling to juggle life as the greatest writer of all time and his family life. Liza Tarbuck and Harry Enfield also appear.

GREAT NORTH RUN

The summer of sport has kept Gabby Logan busy. And there's no rest for her this weekend as she is back in the presenting seat for coverage of the 37th year of the Great North Run. All eyes will be on Mo Farah for this half marathon and expert analysis comes from Denise Lewis, Colin Jackson and JJ Chalmers. Meanwhile, listen out for expert commentary from Steve Cram, Paula Radcliffe and Andrew Cofor.

RELLIK

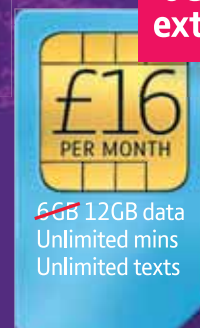

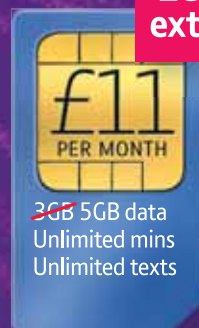

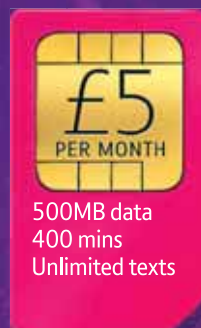

Serial killer dramas aren't exactly rare these days, but this one does things a little differently. Rellik (yes, that's "killer" spelled backwards) starts out with the catching of a killer, then jumps back to the discovery of the crime, before looking at why it was committed and how the case was cracked. It stars Game Of Thrones Richard Dormer as determined detective Gabriel Markham, left disfigured by the killer he's trying to catch. Jodi Balfour appears as his partner, Elaine, and, if crime drama is your thing then this six-part series is well worth a watch.

STRICTLY RETURNS AND NEW JUDGE SHIRLEY BALLAS SAYS SHE IS FUN, FIRM, FEISTY AND FAIR

Slide into your sequins and dust off your dance shoes because Strictly Come Dancing is back. Yes, the Beeb's biggest show is about to return for a fabulous 15th series and this week we've got the curtain-raising show.

Hosts Tess Daly and Claudia Winkleman will introduce us to the celebrities who will be dancing their socks off over the next few months and they in turn will be introduced to their professional partners.

This year's famous faces are Alexandra Burke, Debbie McGee, Charlotte Hawkins, Chizzy Akudolu, Gemma Atkinson, Mollie King, Ruth Langsford, Susan Calman, Aston Merrygold, Brian Conley, Davood Ghadami, Joe McFadden, Jonnie Peacock, Reverend Richard Coles and Simon Rimmer.

But they're not the only newbies because, for the first time since the show began in 2004, we'll be without head judge Len Goodman. That means we've got a new face handing out the scores and we're looking forward to seeing how Shirley Ballas (left) gets to grips with the celebs.

Known as the Queen of Latin, Shirley is one of the most-decorated professional dancers in the world and has also appeared on Dancing With The Stars in the US.

"It's all about the four Fs: fun, firm, feisty and fair," she says. "I may look and come across as quite strict, but I want the celebrities to know that when they are stood in front of me, my heart will be pumping a thousand miles an hour for them in that moment and I'll want to give them comments to inspire them."

"But saying that, I can also be strict – if I ask them to do something and they don't deliver it the following week, I'm not going to tell them that it's OK. I will be expecting things from them and I hope that they will be expecting things from me – to be as honest and as forthright as I can to help them become the best dancer they can be."

This week's launch will see all of the celebrities perform a group dance number while last year's winners, Ore Oduba and Joanne Clifton, will perform. Then the famous foot tappers have two weeks before the series starts – let's hope they spend it in the dance studio so they can keep Shirley happy!

DRESSED FOR SUCCESS

COULD YOU PICK AN OUTFIT FOR A STRANGER ON A BLIND DATE?

If you've ever been on a blind date, you'll know how tough it is trying to find the right outfit to impress someone you have never met. But imagine what the pressure must be like to also pick the clothes for the person you are about to meet!

That's the premise of new weeknight dating show Dress To Impress, which is the brainchild of Radio 1 DJ Matt Edmondson, who also hosts.

Here, he tells Big TV what to expect...

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE SHOW?

It's a dating show but it's a little bit different because the people going on the date never see each other and they are picking a date purely on outfits that have been bought for them by three potential suitors. The three have half an hour, £150 each and a vague brief. They're dropped in a shopping centre and are told they need something like "an outfit that will distract from my boobs" or "to impress me with something suitable for a date in a spa". It's a stressful half an hour for them trying to put an outfit together.

HOW DO THEY REACT WHEN THEY SEE THE CHOSEN OUTFITS?

The person who has set the challenge goes to a room with their mates. They try all the outfits on then tear them to pieces, decide whether they love or hate them and decide who has the right eye for them. One gets binned off and the final two battle for the date.

THEN WHAT HAPPENS?

They're given a brief like a nice country walk or a funfair and they have to dress them for that date. It's a stressful but funny show. They'll turn up in the chosen outfit to meet the one they liked the clothes of the best.

ARE THERE MANY HAPPY-EVER-AFTERS IN DRESS TO IMPRESS?

We filmed 30 episodes and half of them are matches where they said they'd like to see each other again. Some of them also said, "Absolutely not!"

HOW DID YOU COME UP WITH THE IDEA FOR THE SHOW?

Part of my job is trying to think up ideas for telly shows. I love a dating show and had to do some shopping for my wife for her birthday. I went to Topshop, which was four floors of fashion, and didn't know where to begin. I was on a limited timescale and found it so stressful and thought, "Thank God no one can see this." Then I thought how stressful it would be trying to buy something for someone you didn't know and thought, "A-ha! There's a TV show there."

■ Dress To Impress, weeknights, 6pm, ITV2

IN THE LINE OF FIRE

FRANKIE BRIDGE AND FREDDIE FLINTOFF HIT THE MARK IN CANNONBALL

Fans of comedy double acts from the 1980s shouldn't get themselves too excited at the title of this new show. Alas, Cannon and Ball aren't back for a second shot at fame. It's actually the title of a brand-new Total Wipeout meets Hole In The Wall and Ninja Warrior-style action competition.

Contestants face super-sized games in a custom-built water park designed to test how high, far and fast they can fly through the air before they crash, splash, bang and wallop into the water. Then those who get to the final launch themselves "cannonball-style" at a moving target covering the surface of a gigantic deep-water tank. And if they hit it, they could become the winner of the coveted Cannonball Cup.

Andrew "Freddie" Flintoff hosts and who better to co-present a Saturday night show than ex-Saturdays singer Frankie Bridge?

"It's a fun show," says Frankie. "The challenges are all water based and anyone can take part. You don't have to be really fit – people of all shapes and sizes can give it a go. When I was first told about it, it looked so much fun. The games were on such a huge scale, I knew it was going to make me laugh. And the contestants came off asking if they could do it again."

The series was filmed in Malta and each week, 24 contestants attempt all four water-based challenges. They then rotate around the Cannonball course as they battle to be the winner of each game. And the three with the most medals at the end of the heats go head-to-head in the final. But Freddie admits he would have no interest in being a contestant.

"I used to be an adrenaline junkie but as I've got older I'm not," he says. "I did a show for ITV4 and I went through America and did extreme sports, from bull riding to cliff diving, and I think I got my fix. Now I'm just happy at home with a cup of tea!"

BOTH SIDES OF THE STORY

ONE NIGHT CHANGES TWO LIVES FOREVER IN NEW DRAMA LIAR

When recently single teacher Laura goes on a date with widowed surgeon Andrew, neither think their lives are about to change. But when ugly rumours start the next day, both have to give their sides of the story and, when those versions of events are very different, the situation threatens to spiral out of control.

It's a clever story and Joanne Froggatt, who plays Laura, believes it will make you think.

"It's a psychological thriller with a real intelligence and when I read the script, it brought up a lot of questions about how we, as a society, think about certain things," she says. "How difficult it is to know the truth at times and it also has an element of who is really trustworthy in your life and at what point do you decide to trust someone. You may find things out about them that you never expected, whether you have known them for many years or whether you have known them for five minutes, so it brings up lots of interesting questions."

Joan Gruffudd plays Andrew and the role, written by Harry and Jack Williams who also created The Missing, was too good not to come back home for.

"The reason I'm back on British TV for the first time in a decade is Harry and Jack's script," he says. "I received their scripts in LA and couldn't put them down."

Joanne hopes that viewers will be just as drawn in as Laura was and believes it's definitely worth sticking with.

"I hope viewers watch all six episodes before they make their mind up about how they feel about the show and the characters," she says. "There are a lot of twists and turns, so it's important to have that full view before making up one's mind about who is right or wrong, what's right or what's wrong."

SOAP CHAT

CORONATION STREET'S OLIVER FARNWORTH, WHO PLAYS ANDY, REVEALS HOW HE'S ABOUT TO ESCAPE

WHAT'S ANDY'S STATE OF MIND LIKE?

He's gone through many states of hope, desperation and essentially bonding with the person holding him captive. Initially his feelings to Phelan were out-and-out hatred but as time has gone on there's been a shift towards him tolerating Phelan, maybe understanding him a bit more, working with him almost more. But psychologically he's got to a point where he's at the end of the line, he needs out.

IS HE CLINGING ON TO HOPE THAT PHELAN WILL RELEASE HIM?

He absolutely does and it's almost a jolt for Phelan. He effectively left Andy to rot with this wound, then when he came back and found Andy to all intents and purposes dead, he acted quite interestingly to that. There is a bond between them now and there must be a reason why Phelan hasn't just done away with him.

WHEN PHELAN REVEALS HE'S TAKING ANDY TO FRANCE TO SET HIM FREE DOES HE BELIEVE HIM?

It's a mixture of complete emotional overload, with a nagging sense of disbelief: how, where, why now, what's happened? He wants to believe but the hardened more cynical side of him is asking questions. Then the closer it gets with the fake passport and the new clothes, Andy starts to buy into it and the more free he feels the more he dares to believe.

WHEN THE VAN CRASHES WHAT IS ANDY'S FIRST INSTINCT - TO CHECK ON PHELAN OR JUST RUN?

He hasn't experienced daylight for a long time, he's still drowsy from the injury, he's disoriented but he does think of Phelan and he runs straight to the cabin to check on him. He manages to free himself from his ties and he calls an ambulance. His first feeling is compassion but as it dawns on him that this is his chance, he has a complete change of heart. So he runs.

IF ANDY MAKES IT OUT ALIVE, COULD HE EVER FORGIVE PHELAN?

I think Andy would be more interested in never seeing Phelan again rather than revenge or a court case. Andy's main goal is to get as far away from Phelan as possible.

EXPLOSION TIPS LAUREN OVER THE EDGE AS SHE GRABS THE BOOZE

After last week's gas explosion, Walford is in a state of shock. For Lauren, the burden of guilt is so intense that she looks as if she may hit the bottle, while Ian is so convinced he's about to lose Jane that he struggles to visit her in hospital. Max, however, isn't so happy to learn that Jane is still hanging on in there.

Meanwhile, things are looking up for Kush and Denise. Although a little wary, he decides their relationship needs to take the next step and he asks her to move in with him. However, Denise turns him down and the two begin to argue leading to Kush storming outside. Sonia and Kim pass by and see he isn't looking his best, and they're not wrong because he suddenly collapses with a heart attack.

Also this week, Bernadette finds it hard to come to terms with her loss and begs Karen to take her to the hospital to say goodbye to the baby. But Karen responds by making the decision to visit the baby without her.

DAVID'S GOOD DEED BACKFIRES WHEN TRACY HITS THE ROOF

Could one of our favourite soap couples be coming to an end? Tracy has a party and her friends turn up at the shop to celebrate, but David's nowhere to be seen. He is off out on a job but when he returns, he finds a drunk Leyla feeling sorry for herself because she can't pay the designer for her ruined wedding dress. David pities her and offers her cash to help her out of her predicament. But when he turns up at Tracy's party and informs her what he's done and that they now can't afford to go on holiday, she is furious. Has he taken one step too far?

Meanwhile, Debbie needs money and she needs it fast. She is turned down for a loan and is adamant she's not going to tell Charity the truth about the insurance. So she resorts to plan B, to get money from Graham's boss. When the two come face-to-face she is thrown by how much she fancies him!

Also this week, Bernice goes back into the dating world - and it's a disaster!

LISA CONSIDERS SURROGACY TO HELP SIMONE AND LOUIS

It's not just Coronation Street using the topic of surrogacy for a storyline because in Monday's episode, Lisa is debating being a surrogate for Louis and Simone after chatting with Zack. But things soon go awry and she rapidly changes her mind. Meanwhile, Lily is devastated when she finds out that it's unlikely she'll get into Oxford or Cambridge because of her GCSE results. Still determined not to self-harm, she decides to bunk off school with Prince and thus misses the chance to become head girl. The two get drunk together and she throws herself at Prince but he's concerned about her behaviour so he pushes her away, leaving her feeling rejected. Later, Lily glams herself up and heads to the Duke Street Social.

Elsewhere, Grace is gutted as Warren and Sienna's wedding gets closer by the day. She confides in Tracey about her affair and admits that she's in love with Warren. So Tracey encourages Grace to fight for her man.

The X Factor

8pm, ITV

When it comes to music talent shows, we haven't been short of them of late. The hugely popular The Voice UK dominated the beginning of the year's schedules. And whether it's on BBC or ITV, it doesn't really matter — because nobody remembers who the winner is and most of us stop caring once the swivelly red chairs bit has finished. Let It Shine didn't really catch on and set the viewing figures alight, and there are no plans for a second series. Then choirs went head to head over on the Beeb with Pitch Battle before The Voice Kids took up another six weeks of viewing over on ITV. But just as it looked like we might be starting to run out of talent, The X Factor returned last week to remind us just why, out of all the competitions, this is still by far the best of its kind. Yes, it doesn't get the viewing figures it once used to. But it's still every bit as good. And keeping the same judges is a masterstroke as Simon Cowell, Louis Walsh, Nicole Scherzinger and Sharon Osbourne are by far the best panel the competition has ever had. Tonight, expect to see more deluded warblers chase fame along with a smattering of talent. ★★★★★

Fake or Fortune?

8pm, BBC1

Tonight finds the Fake or Fortune team on the trail of two pictures brought to their attention by viewers, both believed to be by Paul Gauguin. He was one of the most interesting artists of late 19th-century France, a stockbroker who abandoned Paris for a bohemian life in Tahiti. He's also one of the most valuable – his Tahitian painting When Will You Marry? sold for $200million in 2015, making it one of the most expensive paintings ever sold. A woman in Manchester thinks she may have inherited Gauguin's very first pencil sketch for this iconic painting. If it's genuine, it could be worth over £200,000. However, its authenticity has been doubted. Just to raise the stakes even further, the team are on the trail of a second possible Gauguin – a still life depicting a bowl of oranges. A Cambridge-based architect has spent years trying to prove that his oil painting, inherited from a wealthy family friend, is a genuine work that dates back to when he discovered the style which made him famous. The team have got a battle on their hands because the authenticity has been called into question by leading auction houses. ★★★★★

Astronauts: Do You Have What It Takes?

8pm, BBC2

It's week four of the competition to find a potential astronaut and tonight, the candidates leave the German Space Agency behind and head to a secret location in Sweden to face astronaut Chris Hadfield's toughest test so far. Here, they're put through their paces to see who can cope with a crisis in space. ★★★★★

Great North Run

9.30am, BBC1

It's the 37th anniversary of the world's greatest half-marathon. And Gabby Logan will be presenting this morning's coverage as more than a million competitors head to Tyneside to try to finish the 13.1mile course. They will include Sir Mo Farah, four-time Olympic medallist Vivian Cheruiyot and Britain's Sammi Kinghorn. ★★★★★

FILM OF THE DAY

Shrek 2

5.05pm, BBC1

By far the best of the four animated tales, this one finds the ogre preparing to meet Princess Fiona's parents. However, to say they're unimpressed is something of an understatement. And a devious fairy godmother decides she's going to interfere and set Fiona up with a handsome prince. Mike Myers and Eddie Murphy lend their voices. ★★★★★

Richard Osman's House of Games

6pm, BBC2

He's a bright spark that Richard Osman, isn't he? Not only does he present shows but he also creates them too. It's Pointless that has made him a star and now here's another one to add to his CV. In House of Games, a group of four celebrities go toe-to-toe in testing their general knowledge skills in a variety of trivia-based games. Competing over the course of a week, each day the famous faces will take on a series of challenging games selected by teatime quiz legend Richard. A daily winner will be declared following a quick-fire round at the end of each show. Then after the scores are added up throughout the week, an overall champ is crowned on Friday. Will the winning stars opt for the much coveted House of Games driving gloves, or instead go for the must-have branded dressing gown? This week, joining Richard are Angela Scanlon, Clive Myrie, Sara Pascoe and Rick Edwards. Then over the course of the series, Richard's list of celebrity contestants includes the likes of Clara Amfo, Al 'Pub Landlord' Murray, Nish Kumar, Anita Rani, Jamie Theakston, Chris Ramsey, Janet Ellis and Anneka Rice. ★★★★★

NEW SERIES

The Undatables

9pm, Channel 4

Keep the tissues at the ready because our favourite dating show is back. Matchmakers aim to find people with disabilities true love by setting them up on blind dates. Tonight, autistic Jason wants to meet Miss Right but gets stressed out with strangers. And Paralympic hopeful Souleyman hopes to find a girlfriend before he goes blind. ★★★★★

Jamie's Quick & Easy Food

8pm, Channel 4

We've reached the halfway mark of the series and tonight, Jamie cooks up a tender lamb shoulder which is great to share. Then it's time for super green spaghetti – a vegetarian pasta – followed by one-pan fabulous fish. Finally, Jamie unleashes his apple crumble cookies which he promises are a fresh take on an old favourite. ★★★★★

FILM OF THE DAY

Prometheus

9pm, Film4

Noomi Rapace and Michael Fassbender star in Ridley Scott's Alien prequel. A spacecraft is sent to another world in search of aliens that are suspected to have created the human race. However, when the explorers discover the extraterrestrials are not what they first expected, a new agenda is set by the company funding the mission. ★★★★★

The Great British Bake Off

8pm, Channel 4

Phew! What a week last week was when the remaining 11 contestants had to try their hardest not to bite off more than they could chew in biscuit week. We are already in week three of the country's most popular cookery programme and while viewing figures might be down on when it was on the BBC, more fool those who have ditched the show as it's already every bit as good as it was. Even without the much-loved Mary Berry, Mel or Sue! Tonight, amiable hosts Sandi Toksvig and Noel Fielding inform the remaining ten bakers that it is bread week. And they kneed (geddit?)

to up their game if they want to remain in the tent by the end of the show. First off, they have to come up with a teacake signature. Then next up, it's a two-tiered technical challenge that we're promised is a back-to-basics style affair. Then finally, it's time for the showstopper. So what will the contestants conjure up and which one of them will win the Star Baker title? As always, Paul Hollywood and Prue Leith make the decision on who has impressed them the most and ultimately who stays and who is kicked out of tent and the competition for good. ★★★★★

Battleship

6.25pm, Film4

If you enjoy Transformers or big robots and/or aliens blowing things up, then this is most likely a film you will not want to miss. Taylor Kitsch plays a slacker who joins the Navy, hoping to win the respect of his girlfriend's stern admiral dad. But he and his shipmates are put to the test when they're forced to fight an invading fleet of powerful alien spaceships. ★★☆☆☆

*Odds of matching 4 balls with The Health Lottery currently (1 in 9,631) compared to odds of (1 in 47,416) for matching 4 balls plus the Thunderball with The National Lottery's Thunderball game.

8pm / 9pm, Channel 4

Two of the oldest – and still the best – property shows are on back-to-back tonight. Phil Spencer and Kirstie Allsopp kick off two hours of property specials by trying to find homes for two sets of couples. And if you've seen any episode of this over the last 17 years, you'll know exactly what to expect. But will they have success with either of the home hunters? Next up, we are off to Haringey where Penny Talelli loves cutting-edge contemporary architecture. However, her husband Mark Edwards prefers period architecture. Somehow, these two neurologists want to build a family home that satisfies both their tastes. But will it be the best of both worlds or just a disaster of a mishmash? When they finally take the plunge, they buy a derelict Victorian gatehouse on a steep London hill. And from there they plan to renovate it and show it some TLC before adding a huge zinc box to the back of it so they have the best of both worlds. But cracks soon appear in their plan – quite literally – as the building is in such a bad state that it needs demolishing. And then the sloping site makes it even harder to build upon. ★★★★★

The Hole

1.30am, Channel 4

What would you do if you discovered a hole in your basement? We'd call a builder or Nick Knowles and his SOS team and it wouldn't make an interesting film. However, the kids in this movie are pluckier than us and decide to explore the space. It's not the greatest of ideas though as they end up in a creepy world facing their biggest fears. ★★★★★

NEW SERIES

A League of Their Own

9pm, Sky1

A League of Their Own is one of those Sky productions that fit time and time again like a comfortable pair of slippers. That's not to say it's boring and only for old men. What we mean is that you know what you are going to get from each episode – some cheeky one liners, a team of famous faces who are up for the craic and plenty of LOLs. Coming weeks after their romp around America, the boys are back in town for a new series of the panel show. And guess who's joining them in the opening episode? England and Tottenham Hotspur superstar Dele Alli, funnyman Stephen

Mangan and comedian Rob Beckett. Things get dicey as the teams go head-to-head on a banger racing track before Jamie and Dele bid to break a record set by the most expensive footballer in the world, Neymar. However, it's the final challenge that really gets the knees knocking. During a test of pure bottle, Jamie and Freddie find themselves 15 metres above the studio floor and challenged to leap between two moving platforms. And, if that's not nerve-jangling enough, they're also forced to sing out the show with the cast of musical Mamma Mia! ★★★★★

The Secret Life of Bees

6.50pm, Film4

A 14-year-old girl who accidentally killed her mum when she was a toddler runs away from her home, accompanied by the family's housekeeper. While searching for a location from her mother's past, they find three sisters who run a bee-keeping business. Watch out for incredible performances from Queen Latifah and Alicia Keys in this 1950s-set drama. ★★★★★

FRIDAY
15 SEPTEMBER

Celebrity MasterChef

8.30pm, BBC1

It's the last of the semi-finals and the remaining six celebrity cooks continue to battle for the MasterChef title. Their first task is the Great British Takeaway Challenge and each of the benches in the MasterChef Kitchen contains a different coloured box containing the ingredients to make a British takeaway – either fish and chips, Indian chicken curry or a burger and fries. The celebs must pick a bench at random and then cook the dish that's on it perfectly to stay in the competition. Next, the remaining five have to prepare a high tea to celebrate the life and works of landscape gardener Lancelot 'Capability' Brown. They'll be cooking a specially designed menu created by one of the country's greatest pastry chefs, Cherish Finden. Following a recipe, they'll each have to recreate one of her dishes. Finally, it's back to the kitchen, where the final five must each prepare one dish inspired by someone close to them. The celebrities must impress judges John and Gregg by showing they can put passion into their food and that they want to stay in the competition. Then another one will get the boot before the final four are revealed. ★★★★★

Pitch Perfect

9pm, Film4

There's just three months to wait until the second sequel to this lovable hit is released at cinemas. But before then, remind yourself how much fun the original was as the story focuses on a student who finds herself a social outcast during her first year of college. However, she soon acquires a new circle of friends in a band of misfits with a talent for singing. ★★★★★

Terms and conditions apply. A raffle draw will take place following each Health Lottery draw on Saturday 9th, 16th, 23rd and 30th September 2017. Each lottery transaction for these draws will generate a unique Hot Ticket Code. Where a single transaction is made up of multiple lines for any of these lottery draws, the unique Hot Ticket Code generated shall be applied to each draw line purchased. Players must be 16 or over. Each raffle prize shall be an 8 night Mediterranean and Adriatic cruise for 2 people, to be taken between 01.05.2018 and 30.09.2018. The prize includes flights to and from a UK airport to the departure port in Athens; cruise accommodation is based on two adults sharing a twin or double inside cabin. Meals are also included. Gratuities are not included. For full terms and conditions please visit www.healthlottery.co.uk. This is a free prize draw linked to a lottery and the raffle prizes are funded by Cosmos. No additional purchase is required. The Health Lottery™ logo is a registered trademark of The Health Lottery Ltd. The Health Lottery scheme manages 51 society lotteries that operate in rotation and each represents a different geographical region of Great Britain. For details on which society lottery is running each week please visit www.healthlottery.co.uk or ask your Health Lottery retailer.

HOROSCOPES

RUSSELL GRANT

 ARIES MAR 21 – APR 20 Working with a talented sidekick paves the way for ultimate success. While your strength is forging new sales paths, your partner is good at maintaining a satisfied customer base. Together, you'll reach heights you never dreamed possible. A disappointing legal decision will force you to change the way you do business. Don't attract negative attention by cutting unnecessary corners. 0905 789 3641	 CANCER JUNE 23 – JULY 23 Joining forces with a strong-willed, dynamic individual will help you attain a goal. Listen to your partner's career advice; it is right on target. Until now, you've been reluctant to pursue the leadership positions worthy of you. Summon your courage and reach for the stars and success will come your way. A relative or neighbour has changed their opinion of you. Give them some space. 0905 789 3644	 LIBRA SEP 24 – OCT 23 A home improvement project will greatly increase the value of your investment. If you don't own your own place, now is the time to buy one. If such a purchase is beyond your budget, a generous relative might give you the funds for a down payment. A creative block has been stopping you from completing a project. Turn your attention to routine work. Everyday chores will trigger a breakthrough. 0905 789 3647	 CAPRICORN DEC 22 – JAN 20 There's never been a better time to take an overseas trip. If you're single, you'll meet someone special while touring a country known for its natural beauty. Do you have a partner? Escaping the pressures of home will give you a fresh appreciation for your lover. Don't panic if you lose control of a work situation. Stay calm, be productive and set a good example. 0905 789 3650
 TAURUS APR 21 – MAY 21 Working for reform, renewal and regeneration gives you a lasting sense of achievement. You're tired of seeing good people marginalised because of outdated attitudes. Creating a comfortable place for outsiders to gather will be a great use of your imagination. Envision the sort of club you always wanted as a child. Rein in your expenses while waiting for a payment to arrive. 0905 789 3642	 LEO JULY 24 – AUG 23 At long last, you're coming out of a lacklustre period. It feels wonderful to have your vitality surging back. Instead of throwing yourself back into work, rearrange your schedule to include your favourite activities. Playing sports, communing with nature and lavishing love on pets will renew your zest for living. It's time to confront a child or partner. Discover the source of their anger. 0905 789 3645	 SCORPIO OCT 24 – NOV 22 A happy reunion with friends conjures up powerful memories. Listening to music you enjoyed when you were younger will revive a creative project. Enjoy this trip down memory lane; it will be therapeutic. Losing sight of your priorities is creating a financial drain. Review your monthly costs. If you belong to a gym that you never visit or have subscriptions you don't use, cancel. Be resourceful. 0905 789 3648	 AQUARIUS JAN 21 – FEB 19 Obey your intuition when it comes to someone you have just met. Letting down your defences with a kind, considerate person will inspire personal growth. It's time to back down from your lone wolf routine. With the help of a loyal partner, you'll defeat a problem. A creative project is showing signs of trouble. Don't beat yourself up for making mistakes. Treat errors as learning opportunities. 0905 789 3651
 GEMINI MAY 22 – JUNE 22 A passionate relationship brings out the best in you. It feels wonderful to have the unconditional love of someone you admire. Old emotional wounds that were inflicted during childhood will heal because of this romance. If you're single, you'll meet someone special through a business alliance. At work, it will be difficult to dig yourself out from a flurry of additional responsibilities. Talk to your boss. 0905 789 3643	 VIRGO AUG 24 – SEP 23 It's time to start enjoying life and the fruits of your labour. Take this opportunity to express your affection for those you love. If you're single, you might meet someone special at a movie, play or sporting event. Being pursued by such an adorable admirer will make your confidence soar. A family argument could well boil over. It's time to come to the rescue of a relative who is being scapegoated. 0905 789 3646	 SAGITTARIUS NOV 23 – DEC 21 You could run a profitable business using unusual or even unwanted materials. Extending the life of these supplies is good for your bank account and benefits the environment. You're having difficulty setting boundaries with your job. A demanding employer wants you to spend more time at the office. Unless you can enjoy your hobbies, you won't perform well at work. Stop working late. 0905 789 3649	 PISCES FEB 20 – MAR 20 If you're looking for love, ask a well-connected friend to set you up with a date. This will lead to an exciting opportunity. You'll enjoy getting to know an intelligent, hard-working person who admires your creative talent. Are you already in a relationship? Accept your partner's offer to cover your responsibilities while you pursue a cherished dream. Assume new duties. 0905 789 3652
